

Communion Reflection

Whose woods these are I hardly know, his house is in the village though; he will not see me stopping here to watch his woods fill up with snow.

My little horse must think it queer to stop without a farmhouse near, between the woods and frozen lake the darkest evening of the year.

He gives his harness bells a shake to ask if there is some mistake; the only other sound is the sweep of easy wind and downy flake.

The woods are lovely, dark and deep, but I have promises to keep; and miles to go before I sleep, and miles to go before I sleep.
