

Summer Fayre Grand Tombola

The Grand Tombola is linked with the Summer Fayre. Due to high postage costs, the books of Tombola tickets and other Fayre information are distributed to parishioners at the weekend Masses. PLEASE MAKE SURE TO PICK UP AN ENVELOPE AFTER MASS TODAY at the church entrance, at coffee in the hall or at the Bookshed. With more than 30 fabulous prizes on offer, YOU could be a winner. Support from the Tombola is important to meet the fixed costs of organising the Summer Fayre, whatever the weather.

For convenience, parishioners who may be unable to attend weekend Mass can contact the parish office to receive Tombola tickets by mail.

Lead up to the Summer Fayre!

In anticipation of the Summer Fayre, all book donations - fiction as well as non-fiction - are welcome starting the weekend of 25-26 May. English/French/Dutch books only please, except for children's books, in which case all languages are welcome. No schoolbooks/textbooks, old business/IT books (e.g., Windows 95, etc.), dictionaries, or DVDs/CDs please; however, audiobooks are very welcome. Please drop off your donations just outside the Bookshed in the designated areas. Pre-sorting by language and/or fiction-non-fiction would be most appreciated. As we will temporarily store and sort all donations in the Bookshed, we will be closed from 25 May until Fayre day. Would you like to help with the Fayre's Book Stall leading up to or on the day? Please contact the Fayre organisers/coordinator (details in the newsletter). And, in the meantime, please grab your favourite fiction at the Bookshed. We are open before and after every Mass - just look for the Bookshed sign across the car park.
