ECUMENICAL WOMEN'S RETREAT

There will be an Ecumenical Women's Retreat on 1-2 October at Drongen Abbey. The theme for the weekend is 'Those who sow in tears... will reap with songs of Joy'. In this retreat we will be taking time together to creatively reflect with God and with each other on where we find ourselves now in the light of the global pandemic, the war in Ukraine, climate change, Brexit and the other crises affecting the world as we know it. Our speaker is Rhona Knight who comes to us as a healthcare professional and an ordained priest, with years of experience in working through trauma and promoting wellbeing. We will be helped to reorientate ourselves toward the God who holds the greater story - the story of justice, of grace, of mercy and of hope. For more information contact the planning team on brusselswomentogether@gmail.com

REFLECTION

Life is fleeting, and can be taken away from us in the twinkling of an eye. However, the brevity and fragility of life brings home to us just how precious is the treasure we carry in earthen vessels. Lord, give us the kind of faith that will enable us to live out joyfully the mystery of our fragile human condition, which sees us suspended between earth and heaven, between time and eternity, and between nothingness and infinity.
