

Summer Fayre and Grand Tombola

There are now just six weeks to go to the Summer Fayre. Starting from the weekend of 25/26 May parishioners are invited to drop off donations of toys, books, bottles, clothes and bric-à-brac items for the Fayre. The guidelines for donations are included with the regular email of the Parish Newsletter.

As usual, a Grand Tombola is also being run with the Summer Fayre. Because of the high postage costs, the books of Tombola tickets will be distributed to parishioners at the weekend Masses from mid-May. For convenience, parishioners who may not be able to attend weekend Mass during May can contact the parish office to receive Tombola tickets by mail. Please support the Tombola as it remains an important contingency in case of bad weather on Fayre Day.

ST ANTHONY'S BOOKSHED -
Lead up to the Summer Fayre!

In anticipation of the Summer Fayre, all book donations - fiction as well as non-fiction - are welcome starting the weekend of 25-26 May. English/French/Dutch books only please, except for children's books, in which case all languages are welcome. No schoolbooks/textbooks, old business/IT books (e.g., Windows 95, etc.), dictionaries, or DVDs/CDs please; however, audiobooks are very welcome. Please drop off your donations just outside the Bookshed in the designated areas. Pre-sorting by language and/or fiction-non-fiction would be most appreciated. As we will temporarily store and sort all donations in the Bookshed, we will be closed from 25 May until Fayre day. Would you like to help with the Fayre's Book Stall leading up to or on the day? Please contact the Fayre organisers/coordinator (details in the newsletter). And, in the meantime, please grab your favourite fiction at the Bookshed. We are open before and after every Mass - just look for the Bookshed sign across the car park.
